A NOTE FROM THE AUTHOR

Final drawing (uncolored) for Kingdom of Kind

Hello, artists!

My name is Kessler Garrity. I have been drawing since I could crawl, and I've never stopped! In the past few years, I have created hundreds of images for The Good and the Beautiful. You may recognize some of my work from the Badger Hills Farm series, the Mark Lives on Mars series, Kingdom of Kind, and many more titles from The Good and the Beautiful. I am a college graduate, having earned a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree with an emphasis in illustration. I do freelance work, tutor, and enjoy creating fantasy worlds in my sketchbook. I currently live in northern Mississippi with my wife, my son, my little dog, my cat, and probably another cat by the time you read this!

I am excited to share with you what I wanted as a young artist: a guide for learning how to draw anything! I love the process of creating art, from making a messy sketch to producing a final work. I hope my lessons can help you hone your own skills. Let's get started!
